

Foundations in Pediatric Dentistry: The Oakstone Institute Board Review

American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry

The American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry (AAPD) periodically conducts the Comprehensive Review of Pediatric Dentistry Course over 3 days at an out of town location. Now, thanks to the Missouri Academy of Pediatric Dentistry, you can take a similar course in the comfort of your home without the travel and hotel expenses.

You have the option to view the course for just the cost of postage, or pay a fraction of the $ 995.00 DVD set cost in order to earn 20 continuing education hours from the Oakstone Publishing, a provider of Continuing Medical Education.

Program Summary

This highly acclaimed course provides foundational knowledge for the practice of pediatric dentistry. It is designed as an essential review for general dentists and specialists who participate in pediatric oral health care. It may also be useful for new and practicing dentists preparing for American Board of Pediatric Dentistry (ABPD) Qualifying or Renewal of Certification Examinations.

The program covers a variety of topics, including growth and development, assessment and prevention, oral pathology, special needs patient care, restorative dentistry, trauma, and behavior management.

Rental Options

You will have 3 weeks to review the 21 hours of material. You will have the option to watch the review course (slides + audio) on your computer or dvd player, or listen to the course (audio only) through I-tunes in an mp3 format. You will also receive a post-course evaluation and 54 question post-test that you will complete and mail to the AAPD should you want to obtain the 20 CE credit hours.

Cost

Review the course and earn 20 hours CE credit	$300.00 plus $10 postage
Review the course and not earn any CE credit	$ 10.00 for postage
